Community: As a small, rural community founded in 1786, Crown Point, located on the western shore of Lake Champlain and the base of the Adirondack Mountains is rich in history. Located just west of the center of town is the hamlet of Ironville, this Historic District is registered on the National Register of Historic Places and is the home of The Penfield Homestead. Crown Point is an original town within Essex County, NY, and home of the Crown Point State Historic Site (featuring the ruins of two forts from the colonial wars) and the Champlain Memorial Lighthouse. The Lake Champlain Bridge is another prominent landmark providing easy access to The State of Vermont. The town encompasses an area of approximately 82 square miles, having a population (in 2010) of approximately 2,024 people.

School: The Crown Point Central School District serves the educational needs of the community. Home of the Panthers, Crown Point Central School (CPCS) is a comprehensive PK-12 school, one building, housing a population of approximately 335 students.
